Fall 2023

32 New Initiates

Summer and fall recruitment again went very well, resulting in 32 new initiates this fall. Our summer recruitment chairs, Myles Alexander and Nate Hander, along with our VP of Membership, Quinn Stewart, did a great job in securing a quality class.

We are always recruiting, so if you know of any current or incoming students with high academic achievement and solid character, please notify someone on our newly elected recruitment team: Myles Alexander (mylesa@iastate.edu, 217-371-5573), Luke Ramsey (lukeram2@iastate.edu, 515-250-5001) or Easton Mittelstaedt (emittel@iastate.edu, 402-649-7203).

Brothers initiated November 10, 2023:

Second Row, L-R: Jacob David Nardo (1792, Evergreen Park, IL); Cullen Fang Ouxiang Merritt (1788, Webster, MN); Tyler Christian Matthew Graybill (1800, Marian, IA); Isaac Alexander Teller (1807, Marian, IA); Luke Michael Steffen (1785, Cedar Rapids, IA); Nathan Thomas (1793, Clive, IA); Bennett Bradley Sebastian (1794, Urbandale, IA); Braden Darin Packebush (1805, Ankeny, IA); Brennan Edwin Sauser (1806, Hazelton, IA); and Beau Edward Lasky (1803, Oshkosh, WI).

Grand Chapter, Again!

For the second year in a row, and the third time in five years, Iowa Beta has been named Phi Kappa Psi's Grand Chapter.

The Grand Chapter Award is presented to the best overall chapter of Phi Kappa Psi. It honors the first form of national Phi Kappa Psi governance, in place from 1852 until 1886, whereby one chapter was selected on its superior merits to then govern all Phi Psi chapters during the period between national conventions (GACs). This chapter was considered the Grand Chapter of the Fraternity.

The governance method was changed at a special 1886 Grand Arch Council to the method that is still in use presently. Today, the chapter deserving the Grand Chapter Award shares the character of Phi Psi's first leading chapters and sets the pace for others across the country.

This is an incredible honor. We take a great deal of pride in this award, and we hope that you do, too.

Chapter House Improvements

Above: New LVT flooring in the study rooms.

As mentioned in the last issue, new flooring was installed last summer in the study rooms upstairs. Out went the carpet originally installed with the 2006 renovation, and in went a hard surface, luxury vinyl tile, which will be easier to keep clean. And the lighter color made all of the rooms seem larger. We also widened the driveway to make it easier for everyone, especially the garbage trucks, to get in and out. We'll all appreciate that this winter.

Chapter Report: Excellence in Academics, Community Involvement

Academics

We did it again! For the 13th semester in a row, we have placed in the top five of all IFC fraternities. This semester, we were second with a 3.36 chapter GPA. And going all the way back to spring semester 2008 (32 semesters), we have placed in the top 10 in 29 of those semesters, and always in the top half.

Ten of our men had a perfect 4.00: Will Greteman, Charlie Hanneman, Jack Jennings, Michael Kimball, Logan Kinch, Ryan Schiltz, Eli Shopbell, Sam Shover, Drew Szalat, and Noah Seibert.

Homecoming

Our pairing's cast for the Homecoming lawn display.

Winning Homecoming tournaments (basketball here) is even more fun.

We had a great Homecoming this fall. Paired with Kappa Delta sorority, we placed second overall out of 15 pairings. In the individual competitions, we were first in community service and first in tournaments (including first in basketball and second in volleyball). Something new for us this year was participating in the lawn display competition, and here we placed second. Our overall homecoming co-chairs, Ryan Colby and Jake Umble, and our Yell-Like-Hell co-chairs, Blake Tighe and Luke Ramsey, deserve our thanks for a job well done.

Monday Night Dinner Guests

Camden Lloyd with dinner guest Kevin Dresser.

Monday night chapter dinners wouldn't be complete without interesting dinner guests, and we had a great lineup again this semester. Joining us this fall were several of our own brothers: Jim Grabenbauer, '73-948, a retired industrial engineer with Union Pacific in Omaha (who also gave the chapter a risk management talk on alcohol); Danny Coughlin, '19-1647, and Louie Ervin, '19-1651, who talked from the perspective of hindsight about how to make the most of the undergraduate years; Andrew Turner, '07-1343, and Jordan Swanson, '19-1631, both members of the William and Lindy Good Scholarship selection committee who promoted the scholarship; and Alex Lev, '16-1508, and Charlie Erdman, '16-1526, who shared their perspectives on what to expect in those first few years out of college.

And we tapped into some University talent: Our University Advisor, Distinguished Professor of Psychology Craig A. Anderson, IN Zeta '74; the Dean of the College of Engineering, W. Samuel Easterling; and ISU Wrestling Coach Kevin Dresser.

Finally, joining us for the fourth time in the last seven years was Rev. Dr. David McDonald, WI Gamma '82, who once again made the trip from his home near Madison, WI, to be with us. Brother McDonald has served as chapter advisor for multiple chapters and has held a variety of positions for the National Fraternity. He is regarded by many as the best public speaker in the Phi Psi world these days, and his remarks at dinner lived up to those accolades. He has been a true friend of our chapter.

Philanthropy and Community Service

We paired up with Delta Gamma sorority for our big philanthropy event this fall — the Phi Psi-Delta Gamma Cornhole Classic — to raise money for the Make-A-Wish Foundation. Cornhole competitions were held on our front yard while hot-dogs and hamburgers and all the trimmings were served across the street at the DG house. The event was very well attended.

Several members spent a Saturday morning at the Ames Miracle Playground and Field, a park which caters to children with physical, cognitive, and sensory disabilities. During a series of organized games at the park, our men served as “buddies” to the players, hanging out with them and helping them as needed.

And as customary, we participated in a gaming marathon conducted through the Extra Life program to raise money for the Children’s Miracle Network, and cleaned up our little part of heaven east of town along Highway 30 as part of the Adopt-A-Highway program.

Finally, again this fall, in remembrance of brother Paul Troupe, '11-1402, who was killed by a distracted driver, the chapter “tabled” at the Memorial Union to bring awareness to the dangers of distracted driving, encouraging passersby to take the pledge to put down the phone or whatever else might be distracting them and to focus on the road.

Campus Involvement

They will even take a chapter advisor’s blood!

The chapter continued its tradition of heavy involvement with the fall semester ISU Blood Drive. Will Cooper was a Co-Director, Jack White was the Treasurer, Ryan Droogsma was Partnership and Outreach Exec, Kai Goble was Logistics and Operations Exec, Jake Smithson was On-Campus Exec, Jack Doe was Off-Campus Exec, and Quinn Stewart was Sponsorship Exec. Seventeen other members served on committees helping bring in a whole lot of blood. It was almost like a Phi Psi social or brotherhood event!

Phi Psi continued its leadership for the Engineering Career Fair, too. Peter Guzman and Jake Umble were members of the Personnel Executive Team and Luke Ramsey was a member of the Logistics Executive Team.

Other campus involvement: Kain Wempen was VP of Judicial Affairs and Camden Lloyd was VP of Recruitment for IFC; Peyton Rippin sang in the Iowa State Singers; and Lucas Fisher was on the ISU Club Volleyball team

Socials and Brotherhood Events

Our brotherhood chairs, Will Thomas and Camden Lloyd, lined up a couple of our favorites — a trip to the Center Grove Orchard in nearby Cambridge, IA, and an afternoon of bubble soccer right on our own front lawn.

Social chairs Peter Guzman and Brooks Wee kept us busy with a petting zoo social with Gamma Phi Beta, pumpkin carving with Sigma Kappa, volleyball with Kappa Delta, and smores with Pi Beta Phi. And then there was a bus party to Des Moines and the traditional James Bond party. There was plenty to do at Phi Psi this semester!

And a Word of Thanks to . . .

Our parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles, siblings, cousins, you name it, who showed up in large numbers at our annual Family Weekend. The support they provide via their voluntary dues and annual silent auction is great. And for our dads who came to our Dad’s Weekend for some sports, chili, and all-around male bonding.

Jeff Haynes, '88-1214, of Custom Awards & Embroidery of Urbandale for supplying this year’s name plates for our scholarship plaques.

Scholarships Awarded Fall Semester

Most Valuable Brother Award

MVBs Nate Hander (L) and Sam Shover.

The Most Valuable Brother Award is a $1,000 scholarship awarded through the ISU Foundation to the brother who has made the most positive impact on the chapter during the semester, as determined by the chapter. Two awards are presented each semester, one to an underclassman (first or second year of college) and one to an upperclassman (third year of college or above).

This scholarship was created and funded by James P. Grabenbauer, '73-948, with some initial help from Jerry A. Soper, '73-956. More recently, contributions sufficient to endow the scholarship have been added by Gary F. Short, '58-699, to honor his brother Robert E. (Bob) Short, '59-712, father-in-law Charles F. (Chuc) Mason, '21-109, brother-in-law Charles R. (Dick) Mason, '61-756, and Arthur C. (Con) Short, '56-670.

Sam Shover, '21-1705, a Finance and Accounting major from Waverly, IA, was the upperclassman recipient. A straight 4.00 student, Sam was most recently the chapter’s VP of Internal Affairs, overseeing the areas of governing, house, steward, judicial review, and risk management. On campus, he has held leadership positions with the Fashion Show and Dance Marathon.

Scholarships, continued

Nathan Hander, '22-1742, a Finance and Management major from Venice, FL, was the underclassman recipient. Nate was one of the recruitment chairs last summer who helped recruit a large fall class. He was recently elected VP of Internal Affairs for the next calendar year. On campus, Nate has been involved with Dance Marathon and Blood Drive, and he works part time as a residence hall maintenance dispatcher.

William and Lindy Good Scholarship

The William and Lindy Good Scholarship is a $5,000 scholarship awarded annually through the Phi Psi Foundation that serves to recognize a brother (generally a senior) who has put substantial effort into making Iowa Beta better during his undergraduate days and who shows potential for continuing his involvement with the chapter as an alumnus. The recipients are chosen by a committee appointed by the House Corporation Board, the current members of which are: Jim Watson, '70-882; Alex Lev, '16-1508; and Andrew Turner, '07-1343.

This endowed scholarship was funded by a generous gift from Dennis L. Stanley, '70-893, and his wife Sherri to honor Bill, '69-864, and Lindy for their transformational impact on the Iowa Beta Chapter. The Stanleys' gift serves as an inspiration to new generations of leaders as well as a recognition of the long-term leadership of the Goods.

Tyler Mills, '20-1673, a Kinesiology major from Urbandale, IA, was the recipient of the 2023-2024 award. Tyler has served the chapter as President, Community Service Chair, and Alumni Relations Chair. He was the recipient of the Most Valuable Brother award Fall 2021 and the Most Valuable Exec award Spring 2022. Tyler served as President of the chapter during two of the four semesters (2021–2022 and 2022-2023) for which Iowa Beta was chosen as the Fraternity's Grand Chapter.

Kyle L. Goodell Spirit Award

The Kyle L. Goodell Spirit Award is a $500 scholarship awarded each semester through the Phi Psi Foundation to a member who has demonstrated the spirit of Kyle L. Goodell (especially in the creative performance aspects of chapter life — performing or directing), as determined by the chapter.

This endowed scholarship honors Kyle L. Goodell, '18-1566, who died in a car accident shortly after graduating. It was created and funded by Kyle's parents, Todd and Donna Goodell, as a tribute to Kyle and his relationship with Phi Kappa Psi.

The fall 2023 semester recipient was Blake Tighe, '21-1717, a Finance major from Clive, IA. Ever since joining the chapter, Blake, like Kyle, has been heavily involved with the chapter's Yell-Like-Hell and Lip Sync activities, having served as a co-chair for both activities. Academically, Blake has been on the Dean's Team every semester here; on campus, he has been involved with the ISU Fashion Show.

Most Valuable Executive Committee Member

This is a $750 scholarship awarded each semester through the Iowa Beta Chapter Endowed OneFund at the Phi Psi Foundation to the member of the Executive Committee that the committee deems to be the most valuable member for the semester.

The Exec member chosen for Fall 2023 semester was Braden Senne, '20-1693, a Business Analytics major from Dallas Center, IA, who recently completed two years on the committee.

Cyclone Phi Psi

- Alumni Editor: Bill Good, '69-864

Spotlight on: Craig A. Marr, '79-1082

My exposure to Iowa State and Phi Kappa Psi started during my high school years when I would come up from my hometown of Muscatine, Iowa, to occasionally visit my brother, Mike Marr, '76-1029. There were other great Muskie Phi Psi's such as Jim Patchett, '71-924, Greg Sanders, '78-1056, and of course, the rest of the brotherhood from that mid-to-late 1970s timeframe. Once it was clear that they had to take me as a legacy since it was their law (hopefully most of you got that Animal House reference), I pledged in 1979.

The Phi Psi experience from that day into the mid-1980s was what many of us from that era regarded as one of the best times to ever be on a college campus. There was just an incredible amount of freedom, with virtually none of the restrictions that colleges impose on students nowadays. We had a blast! Among my favorite memories was beating Iowa in football three straight years, including the first game hosted in that series in Ames in just under 50 years in 1981. It was also the beginning of the Johnny Orr era in basketball, and the excitement that grew as the team began to create Hilton Magic for the first time was a great thing to be a part of.

I was involved in a number of leadership positions at Iowa Beta, including Assistant Treasurer, Vice-President, and President of the Chapter, and on campus as IFC Judicial Vice-President. These experiences were a great learning ground for a future lawyer. I observed, for instance, that there was no such thing as a can't-lose case. This was made clear to me as VGP when one of our brothers was objecting to his fine before the Grievance Committee for missing a mandatory Work Week session right before Rush Week began. While he freely admitted he was not at the Work Week session, he said that was only because he was in jail at the time for public intoxication. The Grievance Committee was immediately swayed in favor of his innocence under the theory that "there but by the grace of God go I."

On a more uplifting note, I cannot fully express what a valuable life experience living at the Phi Psi house was for me and my fellow fraternity brothers. It was the ultimate experiment in self-government and an early exposure in learning how to live with people of vastly different opinions and life experiences. Somehow, everyone needed to get along, and remarkably, we almost always did.

I graduated with a BBA in Management and moved to Chicago, where I started working for Enterprise Rent-A-Car in their management program. Enterprise was a great place to work right out of college, and I made many friends and learned how to navigate the city like the back of my hand. You had no other choice in those pre-GPS days. I eventually became the top human resources manager for the Chicago operation of Enterprise, and then was promoted to the corporate office in St. Louis as the Corporate Human Resources Manager in the early 1990s.

Many life changes occurred from there. I met my wife, Ann, and became an instant father to two wonderful little girls,

Eve and Mia. For the first time ever, I found myself surrounded by women. Ann was not in a sorority in college because as she often says, as one of 13 children and the youngest of six girls, she was born into one and had no desire to repeat the experience.

The second major life change was returning to college to go to law school. I attended St. Louis University School of Law and graduated in 2000. After passing the Illinois and Missouri Bar Exams that same year, I began working as an attorney at a boutique law firm in St. Louis specializing in labor and employment law. I worked several years at that firm before branching off into my own solo law practice in 2005.

It was always my dream to return to Chicago one day, and after my youngest daughter left home to attend Vanderbilt University, we made the move back to the Windy City. It was thrilling to return just in time to see the beginnings of the Chicago Blackhawks Stanley Cup dynasty, and of course to see the Cubs finally win the World Series!

I continued my law practice in Chicago and effectively retired in 2023, although I have kept my license active in case any of you get into trouble. My wife is retiring after a very successful business career, so 2024 will be a heavy travel schedule with upcoming trips for us to St. Bart's, Florence, Montreal, Seattle, and San Diego, as well as maybe even a trip to Ames for homecoming.

My legal career has given me a great appreciation for free speech, which I believe is threatened on many different levels, going beyond even First Amendment concerns. Self-imposed censorship and fears of job loss or educational or career suicide for holding an unpopular opinion affects more people than ever before. I have been a strong supporter of organizations such as The Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression (FIRE) and the Institute for Justice. I look forward to increasing my involvement in these efforts now that I'm retired.

I had a wonderful time catching up with so many of you at the Iowa Beta House Centennial reunion in 2022. I have been lucky to have been in regular contact over the years with brothers Steve Rogers, '81-1109 (Curly); Pledge Son Kevin Thornton, '80-1105 (The Creep); Rob Hermsmeier, '80-1101 (B); Rick Brauer, '82-1118 (Gibby); Kim Peters, '80-1104 (Weepee); Rick Vanselow, '82-1128 (RV); Doug Hull '79-1078 (Skull); and Pledge Son Pete Benson, '82-1119 (Pine). I was very sorry for the loss of brothers Laughing Bob Patrick, '72-942, Dave Pepper, '81-1108, and my Pledge Son, Mitch Wilson, '84-1144.

Hopefully, I will have a chance to see some of you if you ever visit Chicago, where we live in a downtown high-rise condominium building, or at our second home in New Orleans. I can be reached at cmarr@icloud.com or at 312-823-3412. Wishing you all the best in the years to come.

Obituaries

Don C. Bice, Jr., '45-391, of Renton, Washington, died March 7, 2023, at age 95.

Frederic R. Bushnell, Jr., '49-503, died December 14, 2023. Born in Joliet, Illinois, in 1930, Fred grew up in Rochelle, Illinois, and graduated from Flagg Township High School. An animal science major in the College of Agriculture at Iowa State, Fred graduated with honors in 1952. He married Mary Margaret (Meg) Bock in Garner, Iowa, in 1953. Fred and Meg moved to Stillman Valley and began farming in 1955, raised four sons, and started a family farm named for Walnut Creek that runs through their land. He was an early adopter of soil conservation through reduced tillage, which continues to this day through the farming practices of his sons, Cade and Ned, and his grandson, Ross. Fred also served as a volunteer with the USAID program of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, traveling to share best practices with farmers in Russia and the Philippines. As Fred shifted into retirement, he and Meg spent more of their time wintering at their home in Fort Myers Beach, Florida, where he resumed painting in watercolors. Fred painted with various artists in Florida and Illinois and continued his study of art with travel in both the U.S. and Europe. He was also a member of the Fort Myers Beach Art Association and participated in various art shows. Fred is survived by his wife of 70 years, Meg; his sons, Frederic III, John ['74-985], Cade ['78-1048], and Edwin; and five grandchildren, Grace Smith, Ross ['13-1449], Thomas, Benjamin, and Matthew.

Richard C. Vail, '49-513, of San Antonio, Texas, passed away on November 1, 2021, according to his family.

Frank E. Clark, '51-559, of Ames, Iowa, passed away February 3, 2024. Frank was born in 1932 in Des Moines, Iowa. He attended Iowa State University from 1950 to 1954, graduating with a degree in Farm Operations. He then served in a U.S. Army artillery unit in Germany from 1954 to 1956. When he left the Army, he began working for a farm operation in northern Iowa where he met his future wife, Dorothy Stenseth. They married in 1963, began their family, and embarked on a future in farming. After a 50-year partnership, Frank lost Dorothy in 2015. In addition to farming, he owned and operated Ventura Grain and Feed in Ventura, Iowa. Because of his enterprising spirit, Frank was always looking for a better way to do things. He partnered with two operators over the years, with the current partnership having lasted 30 years. Improvements to the land, minimization of agricultural chemicals, and clean water were a few of his interests. He is survived by his children, Tanya Anderson, Jeff Clark, Carol Clark, Linda Alongi, and Amy Ellgren; 11 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

Robert N. Henderson, '57-683, of Silver Spring, Maryland, died September 1, 2023, according to his family.

David L. Henschen, '58-691, of Davenport, Iowa, died October 28, 2021, at age 84.

Alan Koch, '74-988, of Des Moines, Iowa, passed away December 18, 2023, at age 67. He was a proud Iowa native, a product of the Des Moines Public Schools and Iowa State University. As Al put it, he "enjoyed all sports, but excelled at none," so he became an avid fan and statistician of everything athletic. He loved umpiring games, and never made a bad call. During baseball season, Al could always be found watching or listening to the Chicago Cubs, and his life was altered by their World Series win in 2016. He was the third-generation vice president of a family office products business in Des Moines. He was an ardent supporter of small business, and would go out of his way to shop local. He was an Eagle Scout, and a member of Gnemeth Lodge No. 577, Za-Ga-Zig Shrine, and the Des Moines Scottish Rite Consistory. He is survived by his daughters Hannah, Lynn Haden, and Marly; and five grandchildren.
